Hi Julie,

I wanted to thank you for all of the hard work you've done in the past couple of years for me + my family. Although we don't agree with the outcome of all of it + are most definitely not happy about it, we do know that all things happen for a reason no matter that we think that things are wrong. Obviously, God knows better than any of us what is right or wrong or what is best for [redacted], so I will do no less but try to accept things + adjust my attitude + thoughts. I just wanted you to know I appreciate you + your work + dedication to our

So much!

Case for the past, almost 3 years now no matter your thoughts about it.
Thank you so much for all your time + patience with me (probably more than you'd bargained for, huh?) You've been, sort of like, a lifeline for me. You'll never know how much I've depended on you to make things ok.

That's a lot of pressure we put on you I hope to speak with you in the future (for better things!). In the meantime, take care. Oh, by the way. I've had my phone # changed, but, if anything arises, my parents will direct you how to get in contact with me.

Love,
