

But never have I been happier with your representation as when you successfully kept those 'experts' from testifying in court in May. You were OUTSTANDING that day and I cannot thank you enough for all of your preparedness and professionalism.